DELEGATES TO DECIDE ON BALLOT PLAN

Much Diversity of Opinion Exists on System of Voting for the Conservative Leadership

ELIMINATION OR CLEAR MAJORITY?

Reports That E. N. Rhodes Has Been Selected Permanent Chairman Said to Be Unwarranted

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—The system to be adopted in the balloting for the Conservative leadership has yet to be decided and will probably be left to the convention, to be held in Winnipeg. This subject has been much discussed by those active in the organization of the convention, and there is much diversity of opinion that the two methods will be placed before the delegates for their consideration and decision.

At the national Liberal convention the elimination system of balloting was adopted. Four candidates, Mr. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Mr. Hon. W. S. Fielding, Mr. Hon. George P. Graham and Hon. D. C. McKenna were before the convention. On the first ballot Mr. McKenna was low man and was eliminated, and the same fate was Mr. Graham's on the next, leaving Mr. King and Mr. Fielding in the final contest, in which the former secured the majority of the votes. Many Conservatives would adopt this system in the selection of their new leader.

The other method is that all candidates remain in nomination until one receives a clear majority of all the votes cast. In this method there must be determined what the majority is to be. In selecting a Democratic presidential candidate the successful competitor must hold two-thirds of the votes.

OPINIONS VARY
Some advocates of this method for the Conservative national convention propose the balloting continue until one of the candidates secures a three-fifths endorsement of the voting delegates. Others would have a fifty per cent vote elect. Advocates of the system of elimination of the lowest candidate on each ballot claim that it would be speedy and would obviate the danger of a long balloting. They point out that under the other method proposed a decision might be so difficult to reach that a deadlock might ensue.

Those favoring all candidates remaining in the contest until a decision is reached are convinced that the leader selected by this method would have a better and more definitely decided endorsement than under the elimination system. The leader would have carried a majority over all. They also urge that this method would give a better opportunity for the uninstructed delegation to determine finally an acceptable choice.

ADVOCATES FOR BOTH
Both methods have many advocates, although those with political convention experience favor the method of keeping all candidates in the field until the contest is determined. Hon. Dr. Toimie, chosen British Columbia provincial leader under this method of selection. It will be the convention to determine which method to adopt.

Parliament May Stop Flying To And From Canada

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—Parliament may be asked to pass legislation at the next session to stop transatlantic flying to and from the Dominion. This was the intimation made by Premier King this evening, in referring to recent requests made to the Government to prevent air flights to and from Canada across the Atlantic Ocean.

The Prime Minister stated that the Government was at present powerless to stop transatlantic flights from this country. The Royal Windsor, the last Canadian plane to reach England, remarked Premier King, was now outside of Canada, in any event.

The Government, intimated the Prime Minister, was of the belief that the people of this country were strongly of the view that the hazardous air flights should be discontinued. It was hoped that public opinion against these flights might have the effect of stopping men of wealth from financing attempts to cross the Atlantic. "There is room for experimental overland flying," commented Mr. King.

NOTHING HEARD OF MONOPLANE

No Ships Have Reported Seeing the Sir John Carling and Most Optimistic Lose All Hope

YIGIL STILL BEING KEPT AT CROYDON

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Canadian monoplane Sir John Carling, which disappeared yesterday and of which no trace had been found to night.

The Sir John Carling, manned by Captain Terence Tully and Lieutenant James MacCall, took off from Harbor Grace, Nfld., at 7:25 a.m. Eastern standard time, yesterday, and from the moment it faded from the sight of watchers on the field, so far as known, no eye has beheld it.

At 3:17 o'clock of the same morning Old Glory, which previously had been reported proceeding swiftly over land and sea, sent out its fifty per cent vote, giving its position only as "five hours out of Newfoundland, east." Then it too, disappeared as if into some secret realm.

LIQUOR 'MIXING' WAS CARRIED ON

CUSTOMS PROBE ENLIGHTENED AS TO THE CONSTITUTION

Fictitious Labels Were Printed in Scotland as Well as in Canada

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—The Royal Customs Commission listened today to evidence given by four brothers. They were Harry, Sam, Abe and Alan Bronfman, all of whom have been connected with the liquor traffic in Canada. From one or the other of them, Hon. N. W. Rowell, K.C., gathered many details of the operation of liquor export houses in Saskatchewan, Alberta, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, by the Bronfman interests.

The facts gleaned nearly all had to do with ancient history, the operation of liquor export houses in Saskatchewan, along the United States border, the "mixing" of liquor at Yorkton, Sask., and at Regina, and the sale of whisky from Eastern Atlantic ports for shipment to Havana, were activities of Bronfman interests which progressed some years ago.

These, according to evidence, have now passed into history. Harry Bronfman told the Commission that he is now concentrating his efforts on the erection of a distillery near Montreal, and there is a company called the British Investment, Limited, also in Montreal, in which some of the brothers are interested. A profit and loss statement of this company was filed with the Commission today.

Sam Bronfman was the member of the family who gave the Commissioner the major part of the information brought out today about the business formerly run in the province of Saskatchewan.

At Yorkton, he said, "mixing" of liquor was carried on. Constituents were alcohol, distilled water, whisky, sherry and some claret to bring up the colors. Mr. Rowell was interested in the labelling of these mixed bottled liquors. He produced some labels for Scotch whisky, which this witness said had been printed in Winnipeg.

The names of the Scottish firms, he thought, were fictitious, but he justified the use of Scotch labels by saying that this name merely indicated a certain kind of liquor, as for some names in the Scotch firms he said that such labels were printed in Scotland, as well as in Canada.

BOY KILLED WHEN CYCLE HITS MOTOR

Stanley Durrant, of 566 Admirals Road, Victim of Collision With Delivery Car on Old Esquimalt Rd.

CHARLEY STEWART SERIOUSLY HURT

Bicycle Takes Wide Sweep on Curve in Hill and Strikes Car Parked at Side of Road

STANLEY Durrant, aged thirteen, of 566 Admirals Road, is dead, and Charley Stewart, of 511 Constance Avenue, lies in St. Joseph's Hospital seriously injured, as the result of an accident that occurred on the Old Esquimalt Road at 12:05 o'clock noon yesterday. Stewart is suffering from bad bruises and cuts about the head and concussion of the brain. It was reported that he was resting comfortably, however, and did not appear to be in any danger.

The two boys were riding home from school yesterday on a bicycle. The Durrant boy was riding on the right side of the road, while Stewart was pedalling.

COMING DOWNHILL
They were coming down the hill just north of Memorial Park at the time. A Shelly's Bakery car, driven by Mr. Leonard Saxton, of 2820 Shakespeare Street, was going up the hill, which would be in an easterly direction.

The road being narrow and curved on the hill, the driver pulled over to the right of the road, his right wheels sliding into a small ditch at the edge, when he saw the boys. He stopped his car, but the bicycle had to make too wide a sweep across the curve and crashed into the left rear mudguard of the delivery car.

Stanley Durrant was thrown against the car and the Stewart boy landed on top of him with considerable force.

Chief of Police Acreman, of Esquimalt, was called. He immediately telephoned to Dr. J. S. MacCallum, who on his arrival drove the boys to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Stanley died twenty minutes after he arrived at the hospital.

DIES IN FEW MINUTES
His chest had been crushed in, nearly every rib in his body fractured and his left lung pierced by one of the spokes from the bicycle.

The dead boy's full name is Walter Charles Stanley Durrant. He was born in Elbow, Sask., and was thirteen years and five months old. He is survived by two sisters, one brother, his mother and father and two grandparents.

He was a member of the Navy League Brigade Band that toured Canada and England last summer. The body has been taken to the funeral home, where the inquest will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, by Dr. E. C. Hart, P.N.C.

Arrangements will be announced later.

Mates Are Seeking Improved Conditions

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—The first serious dispute between ship operators and officers since the Canadian Merchant Service Guild was organized more than ten years ago was threatened today, when Masters of P. Waterhouse & Company of Canada, coasting steamers, announced their intention to enforce a request for improved conditions.

Mr. Russell Soloway, manager for Frank Waterhouse here, will, it is said, confer with representatives of the mates and the guild. Masters of the vessels affected have indicated that they are in agreement with the request.

The mates are protesting against long hours and desire a relieving officer and more time for rest. Six ships are affected.

AIR VICE-MARSHAL DEFENDS FLIGHTS

Flight From East to West Has to Be Done, Says Sir Sifton

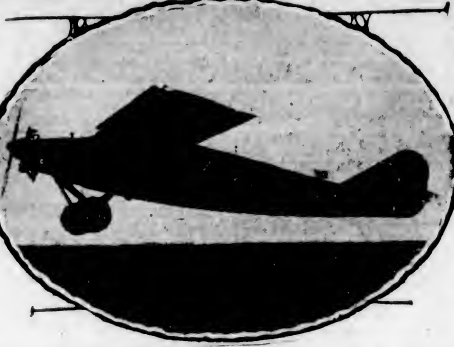

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 8.—Defence of the risks taken on the transatlantic flights was voiced today by Air Vice-Marshal Sir Sifton Branker, who is visiting Liverpool to inspect the landing areas for the proposed airport there.

"A flight from east to west has to be done," he said, "and it is idle to talk of prohibiting the attempt. You can no more prevent man from attempting to fly the Atlantic than you can prevent him from attacking Mount Everest."

Claim to Be Pressed Upon the Government

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—In view of the various differences and complications surrounding the title to Kitilano Indian Reserve, the city finance committee today authorized that Norman Guthrie, the city's parliamentary agent at Ottawa, be instructed to press the claim upon the Government and Department of Indian Affairs.

COLD STORAGE PLAN STUDIED

Dr. R. Plank, of Karlsruhe, Baden, Is Here to Advise Promoters of the Project

MODERN PLANT IS ASSURED

There is a prospect that the City of Victoria will have the most modern cold storage plant on the Pacific Coast when the project, of which Mr. H. G. Brown is the head, reaches fruition. This is the opinion expressed by Dr. R. Plank, of Karlsruhe, Germany, formerly of this city.

It is evident that the cold storage company, of which Mr. Brown is the head, is planning to build a modern plant that can be erected. It is in this connection that Dr. Plank was in the city yesterday.

There was also here for the past two days Dr. R. Plank, D.Sc., Professor of the Technical University of Karlsruhe, Germany. Dr. Plank is an authority in the matter of refrigeration, and ranks among the most distinguished in this line in the world. He is director of the German Institute of Refrigeration, and is also a member of the American Society of Refrigerating Engineers.

MORE FIREMEN ARE REQUIRED

VANCOUVER FIRE CHIEF CARLISLE ALSO ASKS FOR $75,000 WORTH OF EQUIPMENT

In Great Many Instances Present Utensils Are Not to Be Relied on, He Says

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—An additional two-four men and $75,000 worth of new equipment for the city's fire department, was asked today by J. H. Carlisle, fire chief, at a meeting of the civic fire and police committee. Ten men, Chief Carlisle said, should be enrolled immediately and the balance engaged to man the extra equipment.

"The equipment in my charge, in a great many instances, is not to be relied upon, and most certainly I am short of men," the chief told the committee in making the request.

A special survey of the prevention and fighting equipment, also fire escapes, of all apartment buildings and business blocks in the city by the department's fire marshals, was decided on by the committee.

B.C. HOSPITAL PEOPLE VISIT QUARANTINE

Delegates to Association Meeting Inspect William Head Under Guidance of Dr. C. P. Brown

JOURNEY IS MADE ON C.G.S. MADGE

Processes of Fumigation Are Explained by Quarantine Officers Who Give Visitors Cordial Welcome

NEARLY 100 delegates to the tenth annual convention of the B.C. Hospitals Association, spent yesterday afternoon in an inspection of the William Head Quarantine Station, where they were conveyed by C.G.S. Madge, Captain D. G. Robertson.

Leaving the Inner Harbor shortly after 4 o'clock they had a good view of the William Head, which was lying up after having towed the Princess Charlotte from Wrangell to Esquimalt. Those who brought overcoats were fortunate, as a cool breeze sprang up when the Industrial Reserve was passed.

After an hour's steaming, the Madge and her load of delegates arrived in the calm cove and tied up at one of the quarantine wharves where Dr. C. P. Brown, quarantine officer, extended a cordial welcome. Dr. Brown led the party along one of the winding paths bordered with mighty oak trees and lofty firs, to the main fumigation building, where huge cylinders are filled with bedding and clothes and subjected to live steam. He explained the process of fumigating ships with cyanide gas.

CAGES INTERESTING

Near the sheds were several metal cages arranged to be pushed along on a narrow gauge track into the disinfecting apparatus. In the cages were shown where quarantined persons are shut in and subjected to a deluge of water. Dr. Brown was kept busy with questions from the hospital representatives, many of whom had never been in a quarantine station before.

Continuing around William Head, one of the large bunk houses was reached where unfortunate victims of ship plagues are housed. Two of metal bunk beds were shown.

ESQUIMALT'S DEAD HONORED

War Memorial Is Unveiled by Lieutenant - Governor 'With Impressive Ceremony'

MANY NOTABLES IN ATTENDANCE

Dignity and brevity marked the formal unveiling of the Esquimalt War Memorial yesterday afternoon by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor. The greensward surrounding the granite block was thronged with participants in and spectators of the ceremony, every organization in the municipality being represented.

It was a colorful and impressive sight, for in addition to the flags carried by the I.O.D.E. standard bearers, all dressed in white, there was an R.C.N. naval guard in charge of Lieutenant Roy drawn up in formal lines immediately facing the memorial column, and the band of H.M.S. Colomby, also in white, playing the national anthem.

In the afternoon the Harbor Board placed the launch Pupa at the disposal of the visitors and a tour of inspection was made of the harbor.

WINDSOR FLYERS INTEND TO START

Phil. Wood and "Duke" Schiller Say They Will Leave Today on Search for Old Glory Plane

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Sept. 8.—Phil Wood and "Duke" Schiller, Windsor-to-Windsor flyers, who were expected to leave today on a search for the Old Glory plane and its occupants.

Persons who talked with the flyers before they left St. John's, believed that Wood and Schiller would attempt the transatlantic flight, looking for signs of the Old Glory on the way.

The flyers, who had maintained up to tonight that the London-to-London plane, Sir John Carling, would cross the Atlantic safely, reluctantly admitted that the plane probably was lost. They said it would be useless to conduct a search for the Carling since nothing was known of her position.

Interprovincial Conference to Be Held November 3

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—November 3 has been definitely set as the date for the opening of the interprovincial conference. Premier W. L. Mackenzie King announced at the conclusion of today's meeting of the Cabinet. Expectations are that the meeting will extend for a week or ten days.

The agenda for the conference, said the Prime Minister, was under consideration at today's sitting. All the provinces had made their recommendations in respect to the subjects which might be discussed, while the various Federal departments had submitted their proposals. As soon as the agenda had been finally prepared, intimated Premier King, copies would be forwarded to each of the provinces.

ELEVATOR PLAN RECEIVED HERE

C. D. Howe & Company to Inspect Plans Next Week—Full Description of Plant Given

Plans and specifications of the Panama Pacific Grain Terminal, Ltd., 1,000,000-bushel elevator were delivered to Mayor J. Carl Pendray at the City Hall yesterday morning by Mr. E. P. Carter, of the firm of John S. Metcalf & Company, Ltd., engineers for the company.

Mayor Pendray stated yesterday that Mr. C. D. Howe, of the firm of C. D. Howe & Company, would arrive here Saturday and that an engineer would be sent to work on the plans probably on Monday.

The specifications state that "this elevator is to be of modern design and constructed fireproof throughout and to be of 1,000,000 bushels capacity, some 25 per cent in excess of the present capacity of the plant."

On the shipping side the plant is laid out primarily to give fast out-loading through one dock apiece. Five spouts in all are provided, the specifications state. The principal business of the elevator will be to receive grain from the track shed, clean it, dry it, store it and ship to ocean boats.

The grain will be received along three tracks in the track shed. A 500-bushel-per-hour dryer will be housed in a separate building. A standard dust collecting system will be installed.

The specifications go on to say that the grain will be stored in a storage house of approximately 85,000 bushels capacity, some twenty feet from the warehouse, which will have a capacity of 150,000 bushels, making the total capacity all told 1,035,000 bushels.

TO FEED TRAMPS

Shipping of grain to tramp steamers will be accomplished through two 3,700-bushel-capacity shipping bins in the warehouse, and four 3,000-bushel-capacity shipping bins built in the upper portion of the storage house. Provisions have also been made in the specifications for plans for installation of a future sacking shed.

The entire plant will be operated electrically and the construction of the storage bins and plans in general will be of reinforced concrete. Portland cement to be used in the mixing.

In all there will be twenty-two storage bins, eleven of which will face the water side of the dock. It is from these latter that the loading will be done, the other bins feeding into the shipping bins. Provision is made in the plans for twelve other bins to be erected at a future date to provide an additional 500,000 bushels capacity if necessary. When completed the elevator will take up all of one side of pier three, aden Point docks.

Globe-Circling Plane Arrives at Hong Kong

HONG KONG, Sept. 9.—The round-the-world plane, Pride of Detroit, arrived here from Hanoi at 3:25 p.m. today.

News of the departure of the Pride of Detroit from Hanoi relieves the fears for the safety of her crew, William S. Brock and Edward P. Schie, which had been felt in view of the lack of advice as to their progress since they left Rangoon, Burma, Thursday morning.

When the flyers left Rangoon, with Bangkok, Siam, as their goal, they stated that if bad weather were encountered at the latter place they would continue on to Hanoi.

REDUCTION IN ARMAMENTS IS FIRST NEED

This Must Come Before Financial Assistance Plan Could Be Supported, Says Sir A. Chamberlain

GERMANY ASSURED COMMISSION SEAT

Scathing Attacks Made by Delegates of Smaller Nations Against Policy of Secrecy of Council

GENEVA, Sept. 8.—World disarmament unexpectedly caused a discussion in the Council of the League of Nations this afternoon when Sir Austen Chamberlain, commenting on a plan for organized financial assistance for a nation, the victim of aggression, declared that the project possessed great value and would deter aggression, but that Great Britain would want to see a tangible reduction of armaments before supporting the scheme.

Another matter of importance that came before the Council had to do with Germany's former colonies. The Council decided to increase the membership of the League's mandate commission, supervising these colonies, from nine to ten, and assured Germany a seat in the commission. This is interpreted as meaning the eventual restoration to Germany of one or more of these colonies she lost in the Great War.

On the question of financial assistance, the British Foreign Secretary declared that it would be impossible to consider the project apart from disarmament and that British parliamentary acceptance also undoubtedly would be contingent on acceptance by all the nations.

SCATHING ATTACKS MADE

The project which was drawn up by the League's financial committee and now goes before the assembly provides that a nation attacked could contract loans on the general security of its revenues, but a convention would be open to all nations. No states would benefit from this arrangement unless they signed the convention.

Interest in Geneva today was divided between scathing attacks made by eminent delegates of the smaller nations against the policy of secrecy of the Council of the League of Nations, and also the tendency of the big Powers to settle vital problems among themselves and Poland's attack on the League of Nations.

Norway and Lithuania joined Sweden in demanding that the League Council adopt a less passive attitude in international political problems. If the applause and later condemnation of the mixed public galleries are to be taken as a criterion the general reaction to this is that the criticism heard in the past few days was a useful use of the League of Nations.

Because of the opposition of the Foreign Ministers of some of the big Powers, Poland simply trimmed down its original elaborate nonaggression pact until it became a mere skeleton of two articles. One of these forbids all war as a means of solving international disputes, the other stipulates that all international quarrels must be settled by pacific means.

The jurists of the great Powers sat throughout the night and insisted that the word "war" should be modified into the phrase "war of aggression." This disheartened the other representatives who telegraphed to Warsaw for fresh instructions.

Leader of Conservative Forces in Federal House Speaks at North Havan By-Elections

BLITHE, Ont., Sept. 8.—Hon. Hugh Guthrie, leader of the Conservative forces in the Federal House, took a hand in the North Havan by-elections tonight, addressing a gathering of several hundred here in the interests of the Conservative candidate, Mr. George Spotton.

"This riding has been warmly contested," Mr. Guthrie declared. "Never has the Government made such an effort as they have in this fight. They are handing their reputation on it, such as it is. They have not much of a reputation of late."

The speaker then recalled certain election scandals, particularly the Alberta one, which resulted in "Baldy" Robb going to prison.

"What do you think that King Government did last May?" asked Mr. Guthrie. "They let him out. I think probably he demanded his release. Perhaps he could have told some things."

Association of Public and Private Institutions Holds Annual Conference in Victoria

UNIFORMITY IN REPORTS URGED

Traveling Expenses of Delegates Again Form Subjects of Discussion at Meeting

The British Columbia Hospitals Association settled to business yesterday afternoon, when several important matters connected with the management of hospitals were up for consideration. Immediately upon assembling after lunch the question of the pooling of the expenses of the delegates was brought up on the report of the committee on constitution and by-laws, which was presented by Mr. C. E. Wilson, of this city, convener of that committee.

Mr. Wilson submitted an amendment to the constitution along the line of the agreement reached at the last meeting of the association, when it was decided that the pooling system should be introduced for the purpose of affording relief to the outlying points in the province who wished to be represented, and which were debarred from doing so oftentimes owing to the excessive cost of bearing the full cost of the delegates.

There would appear to be some difference of opinion as to what was the intention of the association in the matter, and Mr. Wilson submitted his resolution in a form which, it was explained, might be subject to amendment if the convention so desired. It was laid over until Saturday for consideration.

Under the resolution as drafted, one only of the delegates from each of the hospitals would be subject to the pooling system. This would apply to the actually traveling expenses only. It would be made applicable to auxiliary representatives as well as the institutional representatives.

There was some discussion as to whether this plan would be made applicable to auxiliary representatives or not, and also whether it should be made applicable to the full representation, to which each hospital was entitled. All these points will be dealt with at the meeting when this matter is up.

UNIFORMITY IN REPORTS

Uniformity in the reporting of the institutions to the Government, came up before the convention on the report of Captain George McGregor, of this city, acting for the committee on business affairs, of which he is the convener.

In this connection a report pre-

Mayor of New York at British Capital

Mayor Walker of New York, on a visit to the Old Country with his wife and a number of friends. He is here seen arriving at the Guildhall, London, with his wife. His snappy clothes and the fact that he sleeps until noon every day have created somewhat of a sensation in London.

pared by the accountant of the Royal Jubilee Hospital was submitted by Captain McGregor, who said that it had special relation to the local hospital alone, but he felt that the other representatives might derive benefits from it. It was pointed out in this report that there must be efficiency, just as in private business, errors were liable to creep in without the hospital being open to the charge of trying to misrepresent the situation to the Government. In this connection he said that it might be quite possible for a patient to report as coming from Victoria, when that patient lived just outside the boundaries of the city.

Captain McGregor suggested that there should be someone appointed to take up with the Government the matter of more definite information sought. This would overcome, he said, the trouble that was sometimes complained of, that the hospitals did not report on the same basis.

The president, Mr. George Haddon, on this very point, said that it would be seen in the reports that were asked for each month would be shown to call for the earnings of the hospital, and the expenses of the month rather than the receipts and disbursements. This, it was explained, was for the purpose of showing exactly what the amount was that was earned by the institution, and the amount that would be charged against its maintenance for the particular month. The receipts would come in very much heavier one month than another, and the bills might be carried over from one month to another. The system adopted would show the position of the institution for the particular month.

Mr. R. L. McCulloch, of Abbotsford, argued that it would be much better for all concerned to have the same system of accounting for all the institutions. If this were not done there would be unfair criticisms, and he alluded in this connection to figures relative to the two Victoria hospitals which, he felt, could only be explained on the ground that there was a difference in the way in which the questions were interpreted by the institutions.

Dr. Lamb, of Vancouver, offered explanations, and said that before another meeting there would be an explanation with respect to the reports.

VARIOUS REPORTS

Mr. R. Burns, of Vancouver, reported for the municipal affairs committee. He referred to the move that had been made by some of the municipalities on the Mainland in favor of having representation on the municipalities committee, that added any hospital on the board of directors. This was an unreasonable proposal, he said.

Mr. Burns expressed the thanks of the committee to Mr. J. M. Bryan, M.P.P., for the assistance that he had rendered the association in connection with its business with the legislative committee.

The replies that had been received from the various quarters by the secretary, Mr. E. S. Withers, relative to the per capita charge of 70 cents from municipalities to the various hospitals was submitted to the meeting and referred to the municipal committee for consideration and tabulation.

The relation of the Workmen's Compensation Board to the hospitals was introduced before the adjournment of the convention. It was pointed out that there had been some trouble in connection with the decisions with respect to the number of days' stay the patient might have had at the institution.

Mr. E. M. Cook, of Chemainus, said that there had at one time been some trouble along this line at his hospital, but that there had been adjustments made. The Compensation Board offered the complaint that the doctors did not make the report as fully as it should be made in the first instance.

Others reported along the same line and stated that there had been an improvement in this respect.

TO VISIT GOVERNMENT HOUSE

Before the convention adjourned to take the St. Mader to the Quarantine Station for an inspection tour, it was announced that a change had been made in the entertainment arrangements, and that the delegates would be entertained at Government House at 8 o'clock on Friday, instead of on Saturday, as at first arranged.

MORNING SESSION
Mayor Pendray extended the official welcome at the morning session. He alluded to the low infantile death rate here.

Mr. George Haddon, the president, in the course of his address, said that the association executive had been charged to the municipalities to secure a reduction in the per diem rate now charged to municipalities for their patients.

He urged the association to unite in fighting either of these changes should any concerted attempt be made to so change the Hospitals Act, in the event of the Union of B.C. Municipalities pressing its claim.

WILL OPPOSE AMENDMENTS

This association has fought a long time to secure more equitable arrangement of payment from the municipalities, particularly from those districts wherein no hospital is established, and we must prevent any concerted action to alter the present act unless it is to increase rather than to decrease the per capita rate," he said.

was referred to by Mr. Haddon in the following terms: "Surely the citizens of Nanaimo must realize by this time that their hospital is an institution which cannot be measured alone by dollars and cents, and that they will come to the assistance of the directors and furnish the necessary funds to complete the building in order that proper and up-to-date hospital service may be given to the sick and needy of that district."

Mrs. C. W. Rhodes, president of the Jubilee Hospital W.A., took the chair for the Conference of Women's Auxiliaries at the morning session. Reports of their activities were given by Women's Auxiliaries of Chilliwack, Prince George, Campbell River, Royal Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals, Victoria; St. Paul's, Vancouver; and the King's Daughters' Hospital, Duncan.

A Warm Home Starts a Cold Day Right

A piping hot breakfast in a warm, cozy dining-room. There's nothing like it on a bitter cold morning. To make rooms warm in early morning is one of the essentials of a good heating plant. To meet this demand surely, easily, and economically requires quick action, immediate response to the open draft, a full volume of healthful heat. These are just the advantages you will enjoy with a Sunbeam Warm-Air Circulating System.

And you'll find that every room in your home will be comfortably heated by fresh, moist, warm air all day long. But at the end of the month, when you figure up the cost of this better heating, you'll find that your Sunbeam has made a very worth-while saving.

Just see, phone, or write us today for full details.

Nomination Deferred

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., Sept. 8.—
The Skeena Conservative Convention to nominate a candidate for the Provincial House, which met last night, decided to defer nomination, taking the view that there will be no election this year.

Case Adjourned

The case against Maasa Singh, charged with threatening a woman, Jesse Southam, was adjourned for one week by Magistrate Jay in the City Police Court yesterday morning.
The complainant had left town and an adjournment would be necessary to enable the prosecution to secure his presence at the trial, Mr. C. L.
Harrison, city prosecutor, stated. Mr.
H. W. Davey appeared for the defence.

City & District

King's Daughters—The Ministering Circle of King's Daughters will meet on Friday in the Rest Room, Gibson-Bone Building, at 3 o'clock.

School Board Meeting—The Sannich School Board will meet Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m., in the Municipal Hall at Royal Oak. The usual business created by the opening of school for the Fall term will be discussed.

To Explain Plan—On Wednesday, September 14, at 4 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. George Broch, of the Automotive Equipment Association, will give an interesting talk to all those interested in the automobile trade on the Greater Market Development Plan.

Saanich Delegates—The Saanich Council at yesterday afternoon's session appointed delegates to the convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities to be held in Nanaimo on October 17 and 18. The delegates are Reeve William Crouch, Councilor David Milne and Municipal Clerk
R. F. Sewell.

Tax Penalty—The Saanich Council yesterday afternoon decided to endorse the resolution to be recommended to the Union of B.C. Municipalities convention by the council of North Vancouver. This resolution recommends the reduction of the tax penalty from fifteen to twenty per cent.

Invited to Pin Tags—As many ladies as are able, whether members of the Victoria Women's Institute or not, are invited to call this afternoon at 203 Union Bank Building to pin tags in preparation for tomorrow's tag day in aid of the Queen Alexandra Solarium.

Oak Bay Tax Sale—Eighteen of the fifty-three parcels of property offered at the Oak Bay municipal tax sale yesterday were sold for $13,847.90. The thirty-five remaining parcels will be sold this morning at the Municipal Hall during one of the smallest tax sales ever held there.

New Cathedral Girls—On the eve of the first anniversary of the laying of the foundation stone of the new Christ Church Cathedral, the treasurer of the building fund, Sir Richard Lake, received several anonymous donations from local residents. One contribution of $50 was marked "A Thank offering."

Presentation to Boys' Band—For the second time the Lieutenant-Governor has shown his interest in the Canadian Scottish Junior Pipe Band, following up a gift of bagpipes sent by him last year. In presentation of a silver medal, to be presented as the committee may decide for the member of the pipe band most deserving.

Fox By-Law—The fox regulations by-law passed its final reading at the Saanich Council meeting yesterday afternoon. A licence will have to be procured by persons intending to hunt fox. Plans of the pens and layout of the farm will have to be submitted on application for licence.
Certain restrictions are placed on the number that shall be kept and the pens subject to inspection.

Apply for Position—About thirty women applied for position of policewoman on the Victoria force yesterday afternoon. Most of the applicants came from residents of Victoria and Vancouver. After reading the letters, the board decided to grant interviews to the local applicants for the post at some subsequent date.

May Tour Province—It is expected that as a result of the conference being held in London, the Department of National Defence and Mr. F. A. Pauline, Agent-General of the province in London, the latter may prolong his visit to the province a little longer than he first expected. It is the wish of the Premier that he should become thoroughly acquainted with the situation in the province, and that he should be able to give exact information when he returns to London.

Death Presumed—In Supreme Court Chambers yesterday, Mr. Justice D. McDonald granted an order presuming the death of George Edward Han-bury, or Edward Johnson, as he at times called himself. His wife, in whose behalf the application was made by Mr. Roy Munzer, last saw Hanbury alive in 1914, when he drove to the United States. In 1917 she heard that he lay ill in hospital with typhoid fever, but she had not heard of him since then.

Police Statistics—There were 163 convictions in the city police court during the month of July, according to statistics furnished the Police Commission at its meeting yesterday afternoon. One person was sent to jail, eight or trial, eight or discharge, three were adjudged to be of unsound mind and twenty were committed for keeping. The patrol wagon answered 296 calls. Thirty-six accidents of all kinds were reported to the police, who rendered first-aid in twenty-one cases. Two coroner's inquests were held and $2,219 was collected in fines.

Road Obstructions—Councillor Hagan gave notice of motion at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Saanich Council that the council recommend to the Union of British Columbia Municipalities convention that legislation be sought to give municipalities power to remove obstructions to view on the road, not only on the side of the highway but on private property. The councillor stated that there were many intersections that were dangerous to traffic because the view was obstructed by bushes and hoardings.

Time to Consider Your Fuel Problem

Now is the time to prepare for Winter comfort by ordering a supply of

CLEAN SMOKELESS COKE

Contrary to popular opinion, Coke is more than merely a by-product of gas manufacture. The manufacture of gas is, today, a highly standardized process, entailing the production of Coke Fuel as an essential and important adjunct thereto.

Moreover, the production of Coke Fuel is a local industry, employing local labor.

TOMORROW'S TAG
IS FOR SOLARIUM

Victoria Women's Institute Complete Organization of Taggers, and Announce Conveners

The committee in charge of the tag day organized by the Victoria Women's Institute have made final arrangements for the tag day which is being held tomorrow in aid of the Queen Alexandra Solarium at Mill Bay. It is hoped that the public will respond to this appeal with the same generous wholeheartedness as in previous years. Every cent collected, with the exception of the bare expenses, will be forwarded to the solarium committee, as in former years, and the committee feel confident that a good collection will be made for the cause of "the crippled child."

Following are the conveners:
Mrs. K. Palmer, general Victoria Women's Institute convenor.

In addition to the above, several names have been sent in as willing to tag, and these will be placed on the corners not yet covered.

Headquarters will be at 203 Union Building, view Street. Boxes may be obtained this afternoon or tomorrow morning after 8 o'clock. Light refreshments will be served the taggers. Tagging will commence as soon as possible after 8 o'clock and continue until 5 o'clock. Mrs. K. Palmer, convenor, telephone 5533R, will answer inquiries.

Women's Canadian Club Call for Nominations

Members of the Women's Canadian Club have been notified that nominations for officers and executive for the coming year are now in the hands of the nominations committee by the next meeting, Tuesday, September 20. This committee includes Mrs. R. H. Mayher, Mrs. W. H. Gee and Mrs. S. J. Willis. Under the new clause in the constitution: "This committee shall report at the meeting preceding the annual meeting, when nominations may be made from the floor, after which the nominations shall be closed and the names of nominees posted. No nominations shall be accepted at the annual meeting."

Another clause also states that: "No officer or member of the executive committee shall act in the same capacity for more than two consecutive years."

Nina Morgana, the second artist on the concert course sponsored by the Ladies' Musical Club, is better known in the East than in the West, as she is a comparatively young singer, and this is her first appearance on the Pacific Coast.

In bringing this young and very attractive soprano to Victoria, the club executive wishes to impress upon the minds of the concertgoers that, as in the case of Enesco, the violinist, they are bringing these musicians here while they are in their prime, and that if they had not been absolutely sure of these artists they would not be included in the Artist Series concert.

British Bowlers Capture Victory In Second Match

Victoria Players Win Morning Fixture by Three Points, but Famous Visitors Avenue This Reverse by Trimming Vancouver Island Players in Afternoon by Score of 189 to 84

After losing the morning match to Victoria by three points, the touring British bowlers more than evened the score by defeating players from the Burnside, C.P.R. and Nanaimo Clubs by 189 points to 84 yesterday afternoon.

The party, numbering forty-six, were entertained by the Burnside municipality and the City of Victoria, during their short but enjoyable stay in the Capital City. After playing at Beacon Hill in the morning, the visitors motored to Hamlet-Lake, where they had lunch, and then to the Victoria Bowling Club, where they had a banquet. In the evening a banquet was held in the dining-room of the Hudson's Bay Company's store, when Mayor J. Carl Pender welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city, and Premier MacLean extended greetings on behalf of the people of British Columbia.

The party left last night for Vancouver, and will journey to New Westminster, where they will oppose the pick of the bowlers of the Royal City. Following the matches at New Westminster, final games will be played on the mainland.

September 10 is the date set for their departure from Canada, after spending three months in the Dominion.

AFTERNOON GAME

In the afternoon the nine rinks of the Burnside Lawn Bowling Club were fully occupied with nine teams of six players, when the British bowlers defeated the Burnside players, with their associates from the C.P.R. and Nanaimo Clubs, by 189 points to 84. The British rink scoring a victory being the team skipped by the secretary of the Burnside Club (Mr. George Vallance) against one of the Ontario rinks skipped by W. Wettable.

The green and bowling-house were fully decorated with flags, the Burnside colors, purple and gold, the Canadian flag, and the English, Scotch, Irish and Welsh flags being flown from various points in honor of the occasion.

Prior to the opening of the games, Mr. George Vallance, addressing the visitors as "Gentlemen of Great Britain," welcomed them to one of the youngest bowling clubs in Canada. He stated that the Burnside rinks were possibly the most recent of any in the Dominion, and Vancouver Island bowlers considered it a high honor to have the opportunity of meeting the touring British and Ontario players before their return to the Old Country from the most Western point in the Dominion.

The visitors were loud in their praise of the splendid Bowl House which this club has erected, stating that it was one of the best equipped clubs they had visited on their tour of Canada. During intervals in the game, the Burnside Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club provided tea for the guests.

MORNING MATCH

By the score of 127 to 124, Victoria bowlers defeated the visiting British bowlers at Beacon Hill yesterday morning. The match was one of the closest for many years and was watched by a large audience.

Towards the concluding stages of the game, interest was at fever height, with the issue resting in the outcome of the game between the Victoria rink, skippered by Tommy Renfrew, and the British rink led by W. Wade. The other matches were completed and the visitors were then downed by the local bowlers by a score of 127 to 124.

Lord Dewar Pays $100,000 for a Yearling Filly

DONCASTER, Eng., Sept. 8.—The price of 19,999 guineas (about $100,000) was paid for a yearling filly at the sales here today by P. Darling, a trainer, who said he was acting for Lord Dewar. The filly is by Friar Marcus out of Honora.

Waite Hoyt Bests Sam Jones in Pitching Duel—20,000 Fans Celebrate "Tony Lazzeri" Day

Sox Defeat Washington in Start of Eastern Invasion—Cubs Wallop Cardinals and Climb Back to Third

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The New York Yankees hung up their nineteenth victory over the St. Louis Browns today, Waite Hoyt winning a pitching duel against Sam Jones, a former teammate, 2-1. It was Hoyt's twentieth victory of the season. It was Lazzeri Day at the Yankee Stadium, with 20,000 fans on hand. Before the contest the Yankee star infielder was presented with a floral horseshoe by a committee of prominent Italian-Americans, headed by Acting Mayor McKee.

Boston defeated the visiting Cleveland team in a see-saw game, 10-8, the result being due largely to the hitting of Rotoch and Tobin. Pitchers Shaute and Underhill experienced difficulties in the sixth and seventh innings, mainly because of their wildness, and the Red Sox piled up seven runs to overcome the Indians' early lead.

"LEFTY" THE BIG NOISE

The Athletics defeated Detroit at Philadelphia, 9-1. "Lefty" Groves fanned eight of the Tigers in winning the game, which commenced the season, and also hit a homer, a single and a sacrifice fly that accounted for three runs. Sammy Hale hit for the circuit in the first inning, followed by an infield out, gave Seattle two runs in the ninth.

HOOD STARTS FIREWORKS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—Los Angeles made it three straight over "Hollywood" by winning today's game of Hal Gardner, former University of Washington pitcher. He held the Stars to nine scattered hits, while the Angels bunched bingles off Mulehazy. Waite Hoyt got the Angels off to a safe lead in the first inning when his home run showed in two mates ahead of him.

Even the Series

PORTLAND, Sept. 8.—Portland closed the series with Sacramento today, winning easily by an 8-3 score. Rohrer, of Sac, hit an other home in the first inning, but the Beavers came back in the second and knocked Kello off the mound in a five-run rally.

Vinci was touched for three more in the third but in the last five innings allowed only one hit.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Reading, 5; Newark, 3. Syracuse, 4; Toronto, 4. Only games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

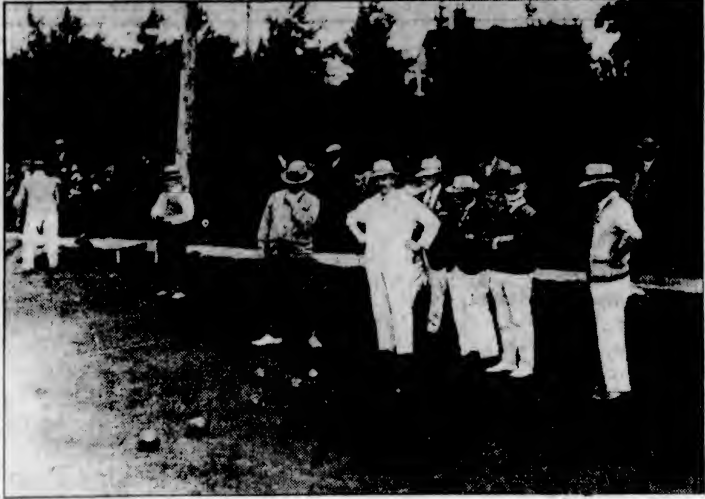

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Stamming four pitchers for sixteen hits, the Chicago Cubs took the final game of the St. Louis series from the Cardinals today, 11-7, and went back into third place in the eight National League pennant race.

The Cubs are now leading the Cardinals by one percentage point. This was the twenty-fifth victory of the season for Charley Root, who kept the Cardinals hits well scattered, except in the fifth and seventh. Schibler hit a homer with one on in the fifth.

Paolino Uzcudun and Tom Heeney Scrap 15 Rounds to a Draw

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Paolino Uzcudun, Spanish heavyweight, and Tom Heeney, champion of New Zealand, fought fifteen rounds to a draw tonight at Madison Square Garden. Uzcudun, slightly the heavier, forced the fighting all the way, taking crushing blows without wincing for the privilege of smashing Heeney's mid-section with alternate rights and lefts and his jaw with hard-driven upper cuts. The New Zealander stood back when possible and drove straight lefts to the iron jaw of the oncoming Spaniard.

Paolino weighed 195½ pounds, while Heeney's weight was 193 pounds.

TUNNEY NURSES CRACKED EYELID

CHAMPION SAYS HE WILL SUFFER NO HARMFUL RESULTS FROM INJURY

Blackfeet Indians Will Make Demands for Chief Tomorrow—Jack Will Appear in Public Then

LAKE VILLA, Ill., Sept. 8.—Nursing a cracked eyelid, inflicted by Chuck Wiggins' head in a sparring bout, Gene Tunney declared a holiday yesterday and visited with friends across the Lake Villa. The vacation continued through today, with boxing workouts probable for both Friday and Saturday.

Gene exposed the cut over his right eye, before leaving camp, and assured newspapermen that it would heal completely by the end of the week. Just a year ago this time, while training for the first battle with Jack Dempsey, Gene said he suffered a similar accident without harmful results. No stitches were necessary to close the wound.

With the bout, but two weeks away, Gene sealed slightly over 192 pounds yesterday, almost six more than he weighed for the battle at Philadelphia last fall. The champion's fine condition and lack of excess poundage have convinced observers that Tunney can not pull himself below the 190-pound mark within the next two weeks.

JACK RESUMES WORK

LINCOLN FIELDS, CRITE, Ill., Sept. 8.—After a forty-eight-hour layoff Jack Dempsey put on his ring togs today to resume training for his world's heavyweight championship fight with Gene Tunney.

The boxing today and Friday will be private, except to newspaper correspondents, but the former title holder may appear before the public on Saturday because the Blackfeet Indians are going to make demands for Chief Tomorrow.

Today's programme called for road work in the morning and four or five rounds of boxing in the afternoon. The present plan of Manager Flynn is to have boxing the next four days, and another layoff starting Monday.

BULL MONTANA LOSES

TACOMA, Sept. 8.—Jim London, California heavyweight wrestler, defeated Bull Montana, Los Angeles, by winning two falls in the main event of a wrestling show last night.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Wielding as potent a racket as he ever has flashed in international tennis competition, "Big Bill" Tilden turned the tables on his French rival, Henri Cochet, today and enabled America to break even with France in the first two matches of the Davis Cup challenge round.

Tilden, with an attack of dazzling brilliancy, outstruck and outplayed Cochet in four thrilling sets decided by scores of 6-4, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4, and the machine-like game of Rene Lacoste had crushed "Little Bill" Johnston by the stunningly decisive count of 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

Johnston's rout was as tragic and complete as Tilden's triumph was spectacular. The little Californian was only a shadow of his former self, lacking control as well as power in a vain fight against the flawless defence and tactics of Lacoste.

FIX FATE IN "BIG BILL"

Tilden, as a result of his victory, is the rock upon which rested tonight America's hopes of successfully defending the Davis Cup in the face of the most formidable challenge to this country's team supremacy in eight years.

So convinced was America's strategist of this as well as of Johnston's decline that they switched plans suddenly after today's play, announcing that Francis T. Hunter, instead of "Little Bill" will pair with Tilden in the double tomorrow against Jacques Brugnon and Jean Borotra. Four hours previously it had been declared Johnston and Tilden would carry the entire burden of the Davis Cup challenge round.

Disappointing as was Johnston's exhibition today, apparently marking a definite decline in the gallant Californian's game, it was more than offset for the colorful crowd of 10,000 spectators by Tilden's thrilling triumph over the youth who had been more of a nemesis to the American ace than any other player in the past year. It was Cochet who put "Big Bill" out of the running for his seventh straight American title last year and it was he who upset Tilden in the Wimbledon semi-finals this season.

New Westminster Beats Westons in Mann Cup Series

Rally by Salmonbellies in Second Period Gives Them Victory in First Game for Dominion Lacrosse Title—Winner of Championship Will Go to Olympic Games in 1928

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 8.—Staging a second-period attack which netted them two goals and broke down their opponents' morale, New Westminster Salmonbellies this afternoon defeated Westons, Mann Cup holders, 6-3, in the first game for the Dominion Lacrosse championship.

The locals displayed superiority to the champions in today's game, and did not have the same speed and snap on the home that was displayed by the Salmonbellies, and they also lacked the punch to come through. The Weston defence, however, proved a veritable stone wall and was the outstanding feature of their play.

The Easterners played high-class lacrosse at the start and for the first period just about held their own. The second quarter, however, proved their downfall. Westons were playing down hill in this period and were playing at top form.

TURN TIDE OF BATTLE

Two goals by the locals, in the second period, turned the tide of battle. The remainder of the game was rather listless with neither team showing a great deal in the way of talent.

The whole difference between the two teams was seen on the home. Westons uncovered a snappy game in this department and had it over the Easterners. They used a short, quick pass all the time, while Westons were at a disadvantage with their long lob-like efforts. The locals displayed lots of speed and handled the ball in the best possible manner.

The summary follows:

GOALS

First period—1, Weston, Golden; 2, New Westminster, Feeney; 1, 23.

Second period—3, New Westminster, Wood; 4, 47; 6, Weston, Suk; 2, 29; 7, New Westminster, Vernon; 8, 31; 4, Weston, White; 26.

Fourth period—9, New Westminster, 17, 23.

PENALTIES

First period—Doyle.

Second period—Coulter, Atkinson, Wilkie.

Third period—Ella, Holly, Vernon.

Fourth period—Kingdon, Wilkie, Suk.

THE LINE-UP

Weston: Wilson, Goal; J. Stoddart, Point; Bill Patchell, C.P.R.; Gregson, W. Coulter, Defence; W. Patchell, Spencer, Defence; H. Stoddart, Riley, Defence; A. Brown, E. Stevenson, 3rd H.; Vernon, Golden, 2nd H.; Atkinson, K. Kingdon, 1st H.; Feeney, G. Coulter, Inside; Wood, Substitutes; Weston—E. Kingdon, H. Coulter, Harris, Ella, Substitutes; New Westminster—R. Fraser, McDonald, Bourne, Burnett, Mackie.

Officials—Charles Parkinson, Toronto; Stan Carter, Vancouver.

TO REPRESENT CANADA

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—Canada will be represented at the Olympic Games at Amsterdam next year, it was decided at the initial session of the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association here today.

On a motion proposed by A. C. Ross, Hespeler, Ont., president of the Ontario Association, and seconded by Jim McConchy, head of the British Columbia Association, it was decided that the winners of the present series now being played between Toronto Westons and New Westminster would represent Canada in exhibition games at Amsterdam.

In the event of the personnel of the winning team being unable to make the trip intact, substitutions will be made by the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association.

CONTEST IS ANSWER

President A. E. H. Coe, of Winnipeg, in reviewing the work of the last year, said the present competition for the Mann Cup was an answer to cries throughout Canada that lacrosse was a dead game. He expressed the hope that as a result of the exhibition games scheduled for the Amsterdam meet next year, Canada's national game would become a permanent fixture at the Olympic Games.

Several changes were made in the constitution. In future no player will be eligible to play in any elimination game.

Major Goodsell Will Not Defend Title This Year

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—Major Goodsell, of Australia, singles sculling champion of the world, will not defend his title until next Spring, it was stated here tonight.

Bert Barry, the English champion, whom Goodsell defeated on the Port Moody course last Monday, had challenged again. He was willing to meet the champion again this year for nothing. He would put up his stakes and stand to lose them, but Goodsell would risk his title only.

Barry will be leaving shortly for the Old Country.

SOCCER PRACTICE

The Five C's juvenile soccer team will hold a practice at Beacon Hill tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. All players are requested to turn out.

Boxers Ready to Don Mitts

Followers of the squared circle have a bumper attraction for their approval at the Armories, Bay Street, tonight, with the first fight of the season. The event is being staged in the form of a "boxing smoker" by the 16th Canadian Scottish Regiment.

FOURTEEN BOUTS WILL BE FOUGHT

The main event will see Sergeant Sheehy, of the 16th Canadian Scottish Regiment, fighting a light-heavyweight champion of British Columbia, while his opponent has held the Royal Navy and Marine championship since 1921.

Days Lewis, popular local scrapper, will fight Fred, of the Colombo. Little is known of the sailor boy, but to local fans he needs no introduction. He carries a hay-maker in each hand, is fast and can be relied upon to put up a good scrap.

Betting for Polo Tournament Favors American Players

Why It Is, Captain Creed Can't Understand—Resume of Factors That Make Victory Show British and United States' Teams More Evenly Balanced Than in Years

By CAPTAIN FERRY REDFERN CREEK (Copyright, 1927, in all countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The time has arrived to write of the prospects for the first International Polo match at Meadowbrook. If there is one game more than another which has the most experienced critics shy of prophecy that game is polo. The game has perhaps more of the element of glorious uncertainty than any other. In addition to the variability of human beings under the stress of a great ordeal there is the element of finely-tuned, practically thoroughbred horses which plays such a vital part in the struggle. Neither players nor ponies are machines and when they are keyed up to concert pitch for a great occasion anything may happen.

Some players absorb a stimulation, which makes them play better than they know how, from the environment, the cheers, and the varied vibrations stirred by the excitement of an international battle. They excel themselves and perform the miracles.

Other players worried by the importance of the issue are depressed below their ordinary form and may even be driven by their sense of individual responsibility into a spasm of stage-fright which freezes their skill at the critical moment.

THE WEATHER

The outstanding feature of the training and practice of the teams has been the weather.

The weather has not been very kind to the American players, but it kept the full punch of its propensity for practical joking for the British players who had come 10,000 miles from India, where the polo grounds are fast and hard. And who during their halt in England refused to play serious polo because they were going to America where the grounds would be fast and hard like the ones in India. Time after time, at the hour of the day selected by the British for a practice match, there would arrive a thunderstorm and a cloudburst.

The Americans guessed better and made a larger score on dry days selected for practice, but they have had their share of mudmarking too. As a matter of fact, we have no guarantee that the weather may not arrange for the international struggles to turn out rather a ploughing match than a polo game. Nothing can be done about it.

THE BETTING

For practical purposes the weather arranged that the practice period should reveal no clue to the probable outcome of the international games. There has been some betting on the event, odds of 8 to 5 on America having been laid. Unless the bettors in question have employed an astrologer in whose divination they have confidence to advise them of the probabilities inherent in the situation, I cannot imagine how they could figure out these odds. On some form shown in such practice as there has been, the American teams possess another factor. On the other hand it would be long odds on the British winning the cup.

THE PONIES

Before coming to the players, let me deal with the all-important factor of pony-power. The invading players will ride the pick of the polo ponies to be found in the British Empire.

The American players will be mounted on ponies carefully chosen from the great wealth of fine polo ponies which are stabled in the United States.

In both teams will be found ponies who for speed "can catch pigeons." And apart from these exceptional flyers there are no slow ones to be found in either camp. They can all gallop to some time or they would not be there.

There is only one quality in which the British ponies may have a slight advantage. More time and trouble have been spent on their education and schooling in all the arts of horsemanship. But if they have an advantage in the matter of handiness the American ponies as a whole may be a trifle faster. If these two suppositions are warranted, they should cancel each other.

In all probability there may be nothing to choose between the pony power of the rival teams.

HORSEMANSHIP

From the ponies, we pass to the horsemanship of the players. All the players who will ride into the lists at Meadowbrook are really good horsemen. And it is invidious to draw comparisons. There is no player here who does not know how to do justice to a good pony. There is no marked contrast between the British and American styles of horsemanship. Such differences as there may be in style are those of individual physique and temperament, and not differences of different schools of equitation. Taking the collective skill in horsemanship of the two teams he would be a bold man who might give preference to one or the other.

HITTING

So far there is nothing to choose between the two contending sides. Now we come to the coping stone of our edifice—skill in hitting the little shiny white ball. A skill which has to be gauged with the width of a goal post, a margin which we have a more or less marked contrast in style.

The American players are as a general rule longer hitters. Mr. Milburn first and later on Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., made big hitting the standard of first-class polo. They were enabled to do this because they cultivated an accurate control of direction over the long range which their eye, arm and wrist gave to the ball. Long range and accuracy of direction are the fruits of perfect timing. But long hitting of itself will not win a game of polo any more than long driving by itself will win a game of golf. The approach shot and putting in golf are no more vital than the approach shots and final shots at goal in polo.

AMERICAN FORM

In all these varieties of strokes the American team reaches a very high standard of perfection. Each of the American players when at his best hits the ball with ease and accuracy where he wants it to go, and may be relied upon to score a high percentage of his opportunities at goal. But none of these players, except Mr. Milburn, has met opposition to the international standard. For when they beat England in 1921 and in 1924 their opponents were not of the timber of which an international team should be made. So, from the international standard, the American team has never been tried out.

In 1924 Lewis Lacey in the first match gave an individual performance which can only be described as miraculous and which will never be forgotten by those who saw it. Could such a performance have been possible against a really great team? Would not a really great team have smothered even Mr. Lacey unsupported as he was by the rest of his side? The American team has yet to prove itself a really great side in the eyes of the international standard. And the opportunity to do so should be at hand.

BRITISH FORM

The practice of the British team has not been curtailed by the weather. It has not had the chance to "find" itself. But all the players have shown flashes of form which matches should give them a good chance of victory.

The flashes have been fitful, it is true, but they could not be fukes. And they give unmistakable evidence of the skill which is there—if only it can be produced and maintained throughout the eight long periods of a test match.

The side which can force the pace will win. If the British can do this they may discover that their staying power is superior to that of their opponents. Nerve and staying power are the reserves of the polo field which, other things being equal, win the battle in the last two trying periods.

TACTICS AND TEAM PLAY

A great deal is apt to be made of the factors of team play and tactics. The stronger side can always impose its tactics on the weaker. But in an international match when the pace is really fast—"all out"—from start to finish, there is only one tactic—"hit out and gallop."

The set-piece of team-play dissolves in the kaleidoscope of speed. Every player has to be ready to play every part and to seize every opportunity to grasp the initiative. The

French Golf Champion Comes to Canada

Simon Thun de la Chaume, eighteen-year-old ladies' golf champion of France, who captured the championship honors of England this year, has arrived in Canada to compete against the best lady golfers in Canada and the United States. This photograph, showing Mlle. Chaume, on the right of the picture, with her mother and father, was taken on board the Empress of Australia.

better each player understands the capacities and limitations of his comrades, the better it is, obviously, for the side as a whole. But in a really fast game formal maneuvers and orthodox team-play go by the board. The side which appears to have more players on the field than the other has achieved the method of victory even though the opposing players may seem to keep more in their places according to orthodox theory.

If the British players can rise to the highest hitting powers of which they have shown glimpses and use these powers skillfully throughout the pace, victory should be within their grasp.

But whichever side may win and whichever side may lose, the one universal hope throughout the United States and the British Empire, is that the international matches of 1927 will produce—as they well may—the most thrilling clash in the history of the game.

Arbiter Mauled by An Injuried Mob

TOLEDO, Sept. 8.—Umpire Derr, of the American Association, was roughly handled here today by fans who swarmed over the field at the close of the first game of a double bill, which Columbus won, 2 to 1.

A close "out" decision at first base threatened a rally in the ninth inning was responsible for the demonstration. Several hundred fans rushed from the stands and attacked the umpire. A small detail of police on the field was powerless to stop the enraged spectators, but Derr succeeded in breaking away and getting to the Toledo dugout without serious injury. Police reserves arrived as the crowd prepared to storm the dugout.

Moriarty Makes Choice for Best Team of All Time

Picks Chance, Hornsby, Wagner and Jimmy Collins for Infield, With Kling Catching—Outfield: Ruth, Speaker, Cobb—Pitchers: Johnson, Mathewson, Walsh and Young

By GEORGE MORIARTY

Manager of Detroit baseball team, former big league third baseman, and for ten years an American League umpire. (Copyright, 1927, in all countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

Someone asked me whom I would pick for my team if I could choose from all the great players of all time and have them at the peak of their form.

Starting at first base I would pick Hal Chase. Rogers Hornsby would be my second baseman and Honus Wagner my shortstop. Jimmy Collins would play third. Johnny Kling would catch and the four regulars on the pitching staff would be Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Ed Walsh and Cy Young. And my outfield, Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb.

Of these players only two, Ruth and Hornsby, are in their prime. Speaker, Cobb and Johnson are near the end of their careers, although Speaker, I think, will outlast Cobb a year or two.

Ruth has a great deal of baseball ahead of him, and so has Hornsby. I believe Ruth is as fast today as he ever was, and that his throwing arm is as good. His hitting, as the weekly averages tell you, has in no way declined.

BEST OUTFIELD TRIO

I know some will disagree with me on the outfield. Any time you pick players still in uniform from an all-time team over players who have tucked their uniforms away, you're going to get yourself into a jam. But I'm sure that twenty years from now Cobb, Speaker and Ruth will be referred to as the greatest outfield trio that ever played.

Cobb is down in most of the books as the greatest player who ever lived on a spiked shoe. Ruth is the greatest slugger of all time, and on top of that he is a splendid thrower and smart in fielding and running bases. He covers a lot of territory, either in left or right, wherever he happens to be playing. Speaker, I believe, was the greatest fielder that ever lived. He consistently hit around .350, and was always a good base runner.

You may say Slater was a better first baseman than Chase. He was a better hitter, but he could never compare with Chase as a hit and run man, could Slater ever compare with Chase as a fielder. Eddie Collins and Johnny Evers were both smarter second basemen than Hornsby is, and both were better infielders than he. For my part, I believe you will agree with me on most of them.

FOOTBALL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Victoria and District Juvenile Football League will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. Mr. Roche, provincial president, will address the meeting. It is hoped that every club will be represented.

RESIDE IN SOUTH

VANCOUVER, Sept. 8.—Frank Adams, of the Vancouver Rowing Club, Pacific Coast singles scull champion in 1925 and 1926, and finalist with Joe Wright at the Canadian Henley this year, is leaving Vancouver to take up residence in San Diego, California, at the end of this week.

RECONSIDERATION OF CLAIMS URGED

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—Firmly convinced that his son, Arthur Compton, if he had been left alone, would have finished in second place in the Canadian National Exhibition $50,000 swimming marathon staged here last Wednesday, W. W. Compton, of Long Beach, Cal., has sought legal advice with a view to taking definite action along the lines of making an appeal to the Canadian National Exhibition authorities for a reconsideration of the claims of his fourteen-year-old boy.

According to Mr. Compton, the boy was taken out of the water at 9:30 p.m., after he had covered nineteen of the twenty-one miles, which constituted the course. "At the time, the boy was going strong and would have finished the race if he had been left alone," said Mr. Compton.

WILL ATTEMPT TO REVIVE BIG RACE

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 8.—For the fourth successive year attempts will be made to revive the inter-collegiate swimmers' race, under plans proposed at a meeting of the American Fishermen's Race Committee, here last night.

The meeting was held to hold a race off Gloucester some time next month between the Henry Ford, Columbia, and any other American schooner that cares to enter the winner to be sent to Halifax if the Canadian fishermen show any desire to resume the meetings which were suspended in 1923.

"BIG BILL" SHOWS CLASS

I have rarely seen Tilden serve better. Leading by five games to four in the first set, and with Cohen at 40-14, the lanky Philadelphia stepped up to the service line and crashed over two cannon-ball serves that left the French player gasping on the line.

It was an astounding show of courage and skill on the part of the former national titleholder, and he richly deserved the thunderous applause he received when he won the first set.

But when the Lyons boy came

GREAT strain comes on the sleeves where it joins the garment. Semi-ready reinforces this vital spot—a tape runs around the back.

LONDON FLAPPERS LAUD THEIR IDOL

Official Reception Tendered Betty Nuthall, English Tennis Star, on Her Return Home

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Ovations were accorded Betty Nuthall, the sixteen-year-old English schoolgirl, who was contender against Helen Wills for the tennis championship at Forest Hills, N.Y., when she left the steamer Berengaria at Southampton yesterday with her Wightman Cup colleagues.

Also at Waterloo Station, London, crowds of enthusiastic flappers greeted their idol. Finally at her home town, Richmond, there was an official reception at the town hall. Many thousands of admirers inside and outside the hall cheered themselves hoarse.

The municipal officers presented her with an inscribed silver rose bowl. Betty had to go out on the balcony to acknowledge the plaudits of the crowd gathered in the streets. She smiled continuously, but for the most part let the others do the talking.

In answer to questions by reporters, however, she confessed that American flappers were "very nice, very free and easy, but had grown up too early." American men, she thought, "awfully nice," but complained that they so seldom wear evening dress. When asked whether any of the team had become engaged to American men, she replied: "No, nothing funny like that."

PATRIOTISM STIMULATED AT BANQUET

Spirit of Loyalty Is Stressed by British Bowlers at Civic Dinner in Their Honor Here

SIR GEORGE ROYLE STIRS SENTIMENT

Declares Canada Needs Immigrants of Imagination, Initiation and Individuality

"If Macaulay's vision ever comes true, and the New Zealanders sit on the ruins of London Bridge, I am confident that the Empire to which we belong will not be lost. There will grow up in Toronto, in Winnipeg, Victoria, and in other centres in this Canada great and mighty successors to that city that has done so much for the building up of this Empire." In these words Sir George Royle, member of the touring British Bowlers, paid his compliment last night at the dinner tendered the visitors by the city to the spirit of loyalty that has been found at every stage of their progress throughout Canada, and which had made them feel that they were a united nation in the development of the ideals of the British Empire.

"We are assured, therefore," he continued, "that the Empire in which we glory to belong will continue to hold its proud position among the empires of the world."

"The Dominion of Canada, with its 4,000,000 square miles, is the great country of the future. As we traveled across it we were impressed with the possibilities that existed for every class of person prepared to make the necessary sacrifice to take part in building up a new country."

"A MISERABLE LIE!" "We have had the opportunity of having a contradiction of the miserable lie of a minority that there was a desire in this country to leave the Motherland, and to join the United States." That miserable statement of a minority has been met by a display of the great patriotism found in every part of the Dominion of Canada.

"We will not forget that when the clouds were very thick over our own country, when some of us were almost to answer to telephone boys on the field of Flanders, and their bodies lie there together."

"When at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month each year we stop all operations, and we hear the tramp, tramp, tramp of your lads and our lads; and amidst the tears—for it is followed by 'Reveille'—a call to action and we answer the call to build this great Empire, help especially would we feel that the

Chicago Mayor Hands Seats to Morgan, Rolph

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Mayor William Hale Thompson today gave up his own choice ringside $40 seats for the Turner-Dempsey fight to accommodate Mayor Rolph of San Francisco and Mr. J. P. Morgan, of New York.

Mr. Morgan wired from London for five seats.

The Mayor will view the battle from a $30 seat—and pay for it, at that. He refused complimentary tickets.

call is to develop this Dominion of Canada with its riches that await their effort."

THREEFOLD NEED Sir George said that they would not forget this great country, and referred to the fact that if a hinge could be placed on it at the eastern side, and it could be turned over, it would cover the Atlantic Ocean and extend over into Europe. No one could gauge its possibilities, he said. Only by getting men of imagination, initiation and individuality would this great country be developed.

Referring to the statement that he had heard Mussolini make when he (Sir George) had represented his country at a gathering of twenty-nine nations in conference in Italy, Sir George quoted the great Italian leader as saying "salvation they rise with the singing of well-timed verses.

He said, in opening, that often speakers said that they would prefer that the task were in better hands, but he would not say that, as he felt that it could not be in better hands if it were assigned to the reply to the welcome accorded them, which was the task assigned him.

The speaker sat down amid prolonged applause.

The complimentary dinner accorded the visitors at the Hudson's Bay Company dining-room was marked by speeches by the Lieutenant-Governor, Premier J. D. MacLean, Mayor Pendray, Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, and Mr. John Paterson, representing the local residents, while for the visitors the speech making was assigned to Mr. A. H. Knight, captain of the British team; Mr. Langford, and Mr. John Fleming, in addition to the inspiring address by Sir George Royle.

Mr. John Paterson, in proposing the toast to the visitors, praised the game of bowling as one that made for democratic relations among the people that took part in it. He touched upon the immense possibilities that were in the Dominion of Canada for development by people who were willing to come and share in the work in hand. He had himself, in leaving the overcrowded centres of the Old Land, felt a pride in coming to Canada, and finding himself in the great expanses.

He touched upon the fact that Canadians and residents of the British Isles were equal owners in the great Empire, the strength of which lay in the virility of its men.

Mr. A. H. Knight, the captain of the team, said that the members of the party had been overwhelmed during their visit by the hospitality that was accorded them at every point. It seemed as if each place visited had exceeded the cordiality of the preceding one.

A message was read from Mr. J. H. Hamilton, president of the International Bowling Board, by the secretary of the British team, Mr. George Thompson, of Edinburgh.

The message conveyed congratulations to the bowlers on their success and also referred to the visit as creating a new link in the connection between the Old Land and Canada.

OFFICIAL WELCOMES Mayor Pendray, in extending a welcome to the city, said that he would simply set out some of the advantages that Victoria possessed, and did so in a short speech.

Premier MacLean, in extending the welcome on behalf of the province, called to the attention of the visitors the value of the various industries of the province. British Columbia needed population, he said.

pointed out, and it was essentially a place for young men and women.

Following the reply to the welcome extended, by Sir George Royle, Alderman Dewar proposed a toast to the visiting team from Ontario, who had come with the British bowlers on their trip. He said that he had advocated for the city municipal bowling greens, such as they had in various parts of the Old Land. He hoped that the members of the Council would yet agree with him in this matter.

Mr. Langford, ex-president of the Dominion Lawn Bowlers, congratulated the British Columbia bowlers upon the excellent showing made by the various clubs in such a short time. In the connection he paid a special compliment to the Burnside Club.

Mr. John Paterson, in proposing a toast to the ladies, referred to the various lines in which women were now taking part which had been previously thought to be outside their sphere.

Mr. John Fleming, replying, said on behalf of the ladies of the party that they had enjoyed themselves every hour of the visit. He said that not only had they all enjoyed the open places that had been referred to as abounding in Canada, but they enjoyed still more the openheartedness of the people.

During the evening there was community singing led by Mr. Frank Sehl. The singing of "O Canada" and "God Save the King" brought the evening to a close, the visitors taking the midnight steamer for the mainland on their return trip to the east preparatory to leaving for their homes in the Old Country.

MOE IS BEATEN BY FRANK DOLP

Sensation of the Opening Round of California Golf Tourney Eliminated at Del Monte by Portlander

EGAN, WILHELM BOTH DEFEATED

DEL MONTE, Cal., Sept. 8.—Don Moe, of Portland, sensation of the opening play in California amateur golf championship here, went down to the Pacific and into the far corners of the earth, these two haven't been out of uniform when working together. They started as American doughboys in "Behind the Front" and proved themselves the shock troops of laughter, showing for the first time a glimpse of the war in a lighter mood than it had ever been treated before. Then they joined the navy on the screen and in the regalia of gobs sailed through a hurricane of mirth in "We're in the Navy Now." Now, in what has been called the greatest comedy they have ever made, which means just about the best laugh film of any kind ever projected on a screen, they wear the blue of the fire department.

Crystal Garden—Swimming and Dancing.

CAPITOL World War medals for bravery in action are no mark of distinction among the men who appear as members of the French Foreign Legion in "Beau Geste," at the Capitol Theatre this week. Four-fifths of the men in the picture saw active service on one or more fronts during the war and many have decorations ranging from the Croix de Guerre to the Medal Militaire. Some are actual veterans of the Foreign Legion, rated the finest fighting organization in the world. Ronald Colman, Neil Hamilton and Ralph Forbes appear in the roles of brothers in "Beau Geste," C. Wren's thrilling mystery story which Herbert Brenon transferred to the screen for Paramount. Other featured players include Alice Joyce, Noah Beery, Mary Brian, William Powell, Norman Foster and Victor McLacklen.

PLAYHOUSE A picture with the theatre flaunting beauty of the French Foreign Legion, and power of life's greatest moments is "The Magic Garden," an F.B.O. production which is now showing at the Playhouse Theatre. The story has as its absorbing theme the love of a boy and girl who meet in childhood in a garden of enchanting beauty. This brief meeting binds their hearts together forever, and though they are separated and many long years pass before they are reunited, it is their mutual love that urges them to great deeds and sheds a radiance over their lives.

COLUMBIA "Whispering Sage," a theatre tense drama of the Southwest in which the popular Western ace, Buck Jones, is seen at his best in some hair-raising situations at the Columbia Theatre today. The action centres about the love and home-coming of Mercedes, a charming daughter of a Basque patriarch, who is threatened by a band of desperadoes headed by Hugh Actin, an unscrupulous rancher with a band of thugs under his control.

Buck, bent upon avenging the death of his brother, who has been shot under strange circumstances, rides into the Basque country, wholly in ignorance of the critical situation.

DOMINION "The uniformed comedy team" is the new sensation which has been bestowed upon Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton, co-stars in Paramount's latest fun classic, "Fireman, Save My Child," which plays at the Dominion Theatre this week. Since they first began sending gales of laughter from the Atlantic to the Pacific and into the far corners of the earth, these two haven't been out of uniform when working together. They started as American doughboys in "Behind the Front" and proved themselves the shock troops of laughter, showing for the first time a glimpse of the war in a lighter mood than it had ever been treated before. Then they joined the navy on the screen and in the regalia of gobs sailed through a hurricane of mirth in "We're in the Navy Now." SWIMMING GALA HONORS DIVIDED

Local Aquatic Stars Prove Strong Opposition for Visiting Team—V.A.S.C. Win Polo Game

Swimmers of H.M.S. Colombo and V.A.S.C. divided the honors at the swimming gala held at the Crystal Garden last evening for the visiting sailors, under the auspices of the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club.

In the opening event, which were for the young seamen, G. Trafford of the Signal crew, captured first place, with T. Trapp close on his heels and F. Barnes in third place. Leading Seaman S. Boughen showed some class and noosed out his comrade, A. Pilkington, by a few feet in the fifty yards' free style event. G. Ruffles landing third position.

W. Thomson won the plate diving contest by coming to the surface with ten plates, two more than his nearest competitor, C.P.O. H. Foster. A. Pilkington was third with six to his credit.

Art Stott, champion fancy diver of British Columbia, won the fancy diving contest with ease, giving a wonderful exhibition of the various dives. Joe Ross was second in this event and Bill Clarke third. Johnny Cameron won the fifty yards' handicap by an arm's length from Bill Robertson, with Johnny Bailey a close third. The plunge for distance was captured by Frank Gilbert, who noosed out Lawrie Greenwood by a few feet.

Victoria Amateur Swimming Club polo team had a comparatively easy time with the H.M.S. Colombo team, winning the game by a score of five to nil.

BRAZILIAN BONDS SHOW BETTERMENT

Sinking Fund Redemptions of the Brazilian Debt Resumed, Giving Promise of Better Times

Mr. H. W. Miller, of the Royal Financial Corporation, Ltd., has kept well posted regarding the financial affairs of Brazil and states that any apprehension among the bond holders that may have prevailed in the past has been dispelled by the fact that resumption of sinking fund redemptions of the Brazilian debt signalized by the purchases for the 1965 loan sinking fund at the end of last week is a notable event in the financial history of Brazil. The sinking fund

New Incorporations

This week there were incorporated for operation in the province a number of companies, either as provincial corporations or as registered extra-provincial corporations. The Brentwood Products, Limited, with head office at Brentwood Bay, has been incorporated as a private company with a capital of $50,000. This is the outgrowth of the successful attempt made this Spring on the part of some of the residents of this district to provide for the fruit output of the growers.

Other companies that have been incorporated are as follows:

Wall Street Sales Company, $100,000. Vancouver, private.

and the theme then arranged provided for the funding of interest for thirteen years. A similar scheme was put into force in 1898, and in January, 1910, the Brazilian Government was forced to accept a new sinking fund resumption by a year and a half. The only loan beyond the scope of the 1914 agreement was that of 1898, originally issued in connection with the funding of three years' interest on the debt from July, 1893; in the case of this loan the sinking fund has been maintained. The present amount of sterling loans—fourteen in number—amounts to £10,000,000, owing altogether, viz. £12,000,000, carrying

Winnipeg Grain Letter

(Compiled by Brandon, Brown & Co., Ltd.)

WINNIPEG, Sept. 8.—With the exception of a couple of dips when prices fell slightly under the previous close, the wheat market was mostly fractionally higher, but values held within a narrow range, the flurries meeting opposition in the shape of increased offerings. The market was largely a weather affair, with a fair volume of short covering going on, due to fairly general rains in Alberta and scattered showers in Saskatchewan. The twenty-four hours which will hold up harvesting for a day. The weather throughout the west is generally unsettled, with showers for Manitoba but clearing in the two western provinces. There was a little export business reported in wheat from the west. The small and seaboard estimated total sales at only 250,000 bushels. Liverpool was quite weak at midsession. The market was generally unsettled. The European weather promises to become unsettled. Chicago market worked about, but not higher than last week. The following is a report which is due Friday afternoon. This report will give the yield of Spring wheat, corn, oats, and barley, and the general condition of the crops. The Cana-dan Government report, giving a preliminary yield estimate of 320,000 bushels of sorghum for the 1962-63 season. Black Sea shipments this week are 320,000 bushels and those from Argentina are 300,000 bushels. Argentine crop conditions are reported as mostly favorable, but good general rains would be of benefit. Shipments are moving slowly, there being sixty-eight cars on the inspection sheet this morning of which fifty-four are for Argentina. Argentine prices are steady but not very tough. The local cash market was very dull, practically nothing doing. All spreads about unchanged. Russian wheat is steady at 20.00. Canadian wheat for seed, their own grains having become much mixed. There will be no Free Press report on the Argentine crop. The report contains the estimate, but date of issue has not yet been published.

Winnipeg, Minn., Sept. 8.—Up here the farmers are anticipating lower prices for wheat and advise bulk sales.

Coarse grains.—Oats continue to show a very strong tone, with good support, and are selling at 1.00 a bushel on the poor condition of the new crop. Closing prices 1 cent up. There was a little short covering in corn, but the market was steady for rye. Barley closed fractionally higher and rye 7/8 up.

Flax.—This market also displayed a little strength today. The shorts covered at 20 cents, and the feature. Final figures, 3/4 to 1 1/4 up.

NEW YORK SUGAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The raw sugar market was a busy today, and while no sales were reported it developed that late yesterday about 160,000 bags of Cuban and 15,000 of Porto Rican sugar had been sold.

refiners is an advance of 1-32 cent. In refined sugar, prices were unchanged to 5.75 to 6.00 for fine granulated, but prices for lower grades of contracts continued liberal, but new business was light, with trade evidently supplied by ample stocks at least, and not inclined to buy much beyond near requirements.
